Frankfort Women's Club – RESTRICTED ACCESS for most materials

Scope and Content Note: This collection includes Frankfort Women's Club (formerly the Frankfort Home Improvement Club) scrapbooks, membership and installation information, meeting minutes, notes, events, reports, booklets, correspondence, financial records, the club's constitution, and by-laws. The scrapbooks and minutes were donated to the Frankfort Public Library in September of 1986 (additional materials were donated at a later date). The Women's Club is held in affectionate esteem at the Frankfort Public Library, as they paid the rent at the Library's first location on 9 W. Nebraska Street in downtown Frankfort from 1961-1966 before the Library became a tax-supported village library. The Club became established in 1917 and is still active today.
